President's Day February 15, 2021

Presidents Day is an American holiday celebrated on the third Monday in February; Presidents Day 2021 occurs on Monday, February 15th. Originally established in 1885 in recognition of President George Washington, the holiday became popularly known as Presidents Day after it was moved as part of 1971's Uniform Monday Holiday Act, an attempt to create more three-day week-ends for the nation's workers. While several states still have individual holidays honoring the birthdays of Washington, Abraham Lincoln and other figures, Presidents Day is now popularly viewed as a day to celebrate all U.S. presidents, past and present. Around the country, patriotic and historical groups hold events and celebrations and schools often teach students about the accomplishments of American presidents. The third Monday in February is still officially called Washington's Birthday. However, in the mid-1980's, advertisers began referring to the holiday as President's Day nationwide, and the name was unofficially adopted by the public. It even appears that way on most U.S. calendars.

Did you know? President's Day never falls on the actual birthday of any American president. Four chief executives: George Washington, William Henry Harrison, Abraham Lincoln and Ronald Reagan—were born in February, but their birthdays all come either too early or late to coincide with Presidents Day, which is always celebrated on the third Monday of the month.

Notes From the Top: Grand Knights Message

My Dear Brother Knights,

As I write this, I am reflecting on Mark 1:21-28 and the irony I find there. Jesus is teaching “with authority” in the synagogue in Capernaum when a man, having an unclean spirit, cries out saying “I know who you are-- the Holy One of God!”.

How many of us walk this earth not truly recognizing Jesus as “the Holy One of God”? How often do we not give Jesus the Glory and the Praise that He deserves as the Christ? In his homily, Deacon John spoke of the Gospel passage beautifully with one simple word: “Everything”. That word is the answer to the question, “What is this?”, posed by those who witnessed Jesus’ teaching and casting out of the unclean spirit.

How can we give proper witness to Jesus, to acknowledge Him as “the Holy One of God”, and give to Him the Glory and the Praise that honors Him as our Lord and Savior, our “Everything”? We have to trust in Jesus and allow His mercy, love and grace to work in our lives. His mercy should inspire us to be merciful, and forgiving, when others do us harm. His love should inspire us to service to others, especially those who are in great need. His grace should fill us with the courage and strength to do the will of our Heavenly Father and with the great hope of salvation that is the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus.

As good Catholic men, we should keep all of this in mind, especially since we are Knights of Columbus, men who have dedicated ourselves to unity, fraternity and charity. Our order was created to serve God and His Church by serving humanity and we must not lose sight of that. Let the love of Christ fill your hearts to bursting and motivate you to bring the Good News to everyone you meet. Use the many gifts of the Holy Spirit in all facets of your life, especially as a knight. Do not be afraid of taking on new roles and responsibilities as a member of our council. Pray about being an officer or a program director or volunteering more of your time in the many pursuits the Knights of Columbus engage in. Be bold in the “Everything” that Jesus is to all of us.

May God our Father bless you and your families abundantly in the name of His Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Fraternally in Christ,

Brother Jim

Dear Brothers:

We thank our Lord for all the blessings. We have some new members to our Council, so please join me in giving them a warm welcome. Thank you for the participation in the Bible Study and the Novena for Life this past month.

This month of February, the readings are from the Gospel of Mark. The first Sunday’s Gospel is about Jesus curing Peter’s mother-in-law and then going “off to a deserted place where he prayed”. The second Sunday’s Gospel is about Jesus curing a man with leprosy, who publicized the matter, making it impossible for Jesus to enter a town. Jesus “remained outside in deserted places”. In the third Sunday’s Gospel, “the Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert”. Jesus then went to Galilee and proclaimed, “Repent and believe in the Gospel”. Finally, in the fourth Sunday’s Gospel, Jesus took Peter, James and John and up a high mountain where he was transfigured and a voice said, this is my beloved Son. Listen to him.

To me the message this month is that we should seek out a peaceful place to pray, repent and believe. The question is are we listening to Jesus, or are we spending our time focusing on what we hear and read on social media. I pray that we ask ourselves are we seeking that peaceful place with Jesus.

Repenting and wanting to change your life is a personal decision, but we offer a peaceful place to study and “believe in the Gospel”. If any other Knights are interested in participating in our Zoom Bible Study, on Tuesday nights at 7:00 pm, please contact me by email at john.rodriguez1001@yahoo.com or text or call me at (949)702-3047. Come join us and have that “peaceful easy feeling”.

May God continue to bless us all.

Notes From the Top: Chancellor’s Corner

Dear Brothers,

The Lenten season starts on Ash Wednesday. As many of you may know from my previous articles, I am a strong advocate for praying the Rosary with Scripture. I have found many different recommendations for how to pray the Rosary during Lent. The USCCB recommends we pray the Mysteries of the Rosary during Lent as follows:

- The Five Joyful Mysteries are traditionally prayed on Mondays, and Saturdays
- The Five Sorrowful Mysteries are traditionally prayed on Tuesdays, Fridays, and on Sundays for Lent
- The Five Glorious Mysteries are prayed on Wednesdays
- The Five Luminous Mysteries are prayed on Thursdays.

I have also seen a recommendation that you pray the Sorrowful Mysteries on Ash Wednesday. I have included a guide to praying the Sorrowful Mysteries with Scripture in this month’s newsletter

Brother Tracy

Notes From the Top: District Deputy's Message

My Brothers,

The California State Council just held their Novena for life. My attendance at the Novena was not perfect but I did participate in a few of the evening Novena sessions. I hope you did as well. They were very moving and uplifting.

Our order supports life in all its forms, the unborn, the elderly, the terminally ill, and the intellectually handicapped. If you ever wondered why the Knights of Columbus have supported the Special Olympics from the beginning this is why. But with the anniversary of Roe v. Wade we are moved to pray for the unborn.

For reference, I'd like to quote the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

Paragraph 2322: "From its conception, the child has the right to life. Direct abortion, that is, abortion willed as an end or as a means, is a "criminal" practice (GS 27 § 3), gravely contrary to the moral law. The Church imposes the canonical penalty of excommunication for this crime against human life."

This is serious stuff and not up for debate. However, I want to caution you not to commit the grave sin of judging other people. We can judge an act as evil (abortion is evil) but we are to love the person even when they commit those acts of evil. It's a hard road, but we followers of Christ are called upon to do the hard things.

But let me clarify. Some in our society, including some of our politicians, are in favor of abortion. In fact, it seems that they celebrate abortion. We can condemn those actions but we must love the sinner. After all, aren't we sinners as well and desperate for God's forgiveness just like them? I know that I am.

We don't know why, in fact we can't know why, a mother chooses to abort the life of her unborn child. I won't claim to know why some politicians support abortion. But out of love for them we must pray for them. We must beg our Lord to forgive them as Jesus did for us on the cross. We must truly want them to be a saint, that is a resident of Heaven. I ask you to commit yourself to praying for them and to desire that all may enjoy Heaven after life on this earth.

February is the month of St. Valentine. There will be many articles about who the real St. Valentine is so I won't belabor the point here. I encourage you to read about St. Valentine and the lives of the other Saints. Who better to be a role model for our lives?

Our Columbian year end is approaching faster than I would like. It's not too early to start thinking about next year's officers. Perhaps you are being called to take an officer's chair. Your council needs you. Please prayerfully consider it. And to the current officers, it is not the time to "let up on the gas". Have you achieved the goals you set for you and your councils this year yet? Winning athletes continue to run hard until after they have crossed the finish line. We are not at the finish line yet so we must continue to run and run hard. In fact, we may even be approaching the point where we start our sprint for the finish line. Don't let up now but strive to finish your goals for the year.

Vivat Jesus!
Brother Michael Klett

Dear Brothers,

Have You Insured Your Most Valuable Asset?

Is your income protected if you become sick or injured and cannot work? Your ability to work and earn an income is your most valuable asset. Yet a disability could prevent you from earning that income. Just one year of a disability could eliminate your savings.

Income Armor, an individual disability income insurance product from the Knights of Columbus, should be a key part of your overall financial plan and family's protection.

If you are ill or injured, Income Armor provides tax-free monthly benefits to help you meet living expenses and maintain you and your family's standard of living. Your monthly benefits help you pay your mortgage and other monthly bills, while your savings and retirement assets remain intact.

In short, if you have a job and don't have a way to protect that paycheck, you should seriously consider Income Armor today. I look forward to meeting with you.

Brother Knights:

On Friday, January 29, 2021, it was raining "Cats and Dogs" this morning, but I attended the 8 AM Mass anyway. We held Mass inside our church and it was then that I realized what a blessing it is to be able to attend Mass inside the church. It was like I had been away for years and I was so grateful to be there.

Taoism/Daoism has a philosophy called Yin Yang: The principle of Yin and Yang is that all things exist as inseparable and contradictory opposites, for example, female-male, dark-light, evil-good and old-young; i.e., for every bad thing there is a good thing.

The good part of this Covid-19 lockdown (social distancing, masks, washing your hands constantly, etc.) for over a year now is that it has made me REALLY APPRECIATE what we have every day. Things that we assume will always be there are really temporary gifts from God, just like LIFE itself.

Feast Days-February 2021

The Presentation of the Lord February 2, 2021

On February 2nd, the Church celebrates the Feast of the Presentation of Jesus in the temple. The Presentation, which is celebrated 40 days after Christmas, is not mentioned in the other Gospels. Only Luke tells the story, most likely because he writes for Gentile Christians who are not familiar with the Jewish rite of presentation and purification. In addition, the intent of Luke's Gospel is to show that God's promise to Israel, fulfilled in Jesus, extends to Gentiles.

Luke recognizes Joseph and Mary as faithful Jews who bring Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem. Here they present their firstborn son to the Lord. Jesus is thus consecrated as required by the Law of Moses. Present in the temple at this time are Simeon and Anna. Both are awaiting the restoration of God's rule in Israel.

Simeon had been promised by the Holy Spirit that he would see Christ the Lord, the Messiah, before he died. The holy man immediately recognized the infant Jesus as the promised Savior, a "light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel."

Saint Blaise, Bishop and Martyr February 3, 2021

If you are already familiar with St. Blaise, it is probably because of the blessing of throats—a Catholic custom on his feast.

According to tradition, Blaise had been a doctor before he was ordained a priest. He became the bishop of Sebaste (now in central Turkey). During a period of persecution, he fled to a cave where he lived as a hermit. It is said that he cured and tamed the wild animals there. One day hunters discovered him and took him to the governor, who sentenced him to be tortured and killed.

About four hundred years after his death, many stories began to be told about Blaise, and he became a popular saint, especially in France and Germany. One legend says that while Blaise was in prison, a mother brought him her small boy, who was choking on a fishbone stuck in his throat. Blaise prayed over the child, and he was healed. Every year on St. Blaise's feast, two candles tied with ribbon in the shape of an X are used to bless throats. In the prayer the Church prays that those blessed may be delivered from diseases of the throat and from every other illness. Candles are used because of another story: It is said that while Blaise was kept in a dark prison, a woman secretly brought him some candles and food.

Blaise is one of the Fourteen Holy Helpers, saints who were patrons for almost every aspect of life. People in the Middle Ages showed devotion to these saints as a group.

St. Paul Miki and Companions, Martyrs February 6, 2021

When the first missionaries, like St. Francis Xavier, came to Japan in 1549 they were welcomed. Many Japanese became Christians. When the warlord, Hideyoshi became ruler of Japan, he feared that Christians would take over the government. In 1587 he banished them and destroyed many of their churches. Some missionary priests stayed and went into hiding, dressing like Japanese in order to minister to the Christians.

More than 3,000 Christians were martyred in Japan. On December 8, 1596, Hideyoshi arrested and condemned to death the friars of Miako. Among them were three Japanese Jesuits, six Franciscans (four of them Spanish), and seventeen Japanese laymen. Charged with attempting to harm the government, they were sentenced to crucifixion. The best known was Paul Miki, who was a Japanese of a noble family, a Jesuit brother, and a brilliant preacher.

The twenty-six men were tortured and then forced to walk more than 300 miles from Miako to Nagasaki through snow and ice and freezing streams. Along the way they preached and sang Psalms to the people who had come out to see them. They prayed the rosary and told the people that such a martyrdom was an occasion of rejoicing, not of sadness. Finally, on February 5, they reached Nagasaki, where twenty-six crosses awaited them on a hill now called the Holy Mountain. It is said that the Christians ran to their crosses, singing. Soldiers bound them to the crosses with iron bands at their wrists, ankles, and throats. Then they thrust them through with lances. Many people came to watch the cruel deaths. Hideyoshi and his soldiers had hoped the example would frighten other Christians. Instead, it gave them the courage to profess their faith as the martyrs had.

In 1858, Japan again permitted Christianity in Japan. Missionaries found thousands of Christians still in Japan. For two hundred years they had carried on the faith in secret.

Paul Miki was born in Japan and educated by the Jesuits. He would have been the very first Japanese priest if he had escaped arrest, for he had already completed his studies for the priesthood.

Feast Days And Important Dates -February 2021

From his cross he forgave his persecutors and told the people to ask Christ to show them how to be truly happy.

Our Lady of Lourdes February 11, 2021

Each year over 2 million people make their way through the mountainous country of southeastern France to Lourdes. They come seeking cures, hoping to find answers, believing, and praying. At Lourdes, people recall the Lady dressed in white, with a blue sash, yellow roses at her feet, and a Rosary on her arm—the Blessed Virgin Mary.

On February 11, 1858, Mary appeared to 14-year-old Bernadette Soubirous. This was the first of 18 visits, many of them with 20,000 people present. When Bernadette asked the Lady's identity, she replied, "I am the Immaculate Conception." Just four years earlier, the pope had proclaimed it a dogma that Mary was conceived immaculate without original sin. The Blessed Virgin, through Bernadette, had come to call sinners to a change of heart. Her message was a request for prayer and penance. She also instructed Bernadette to tell the priests that a chapel was to be built on the site and processions held.

On February 25, 1858, the Lady told Bernadette to dig in the dirt and drink of the stream. Bernadette began to dig, and after several attempts she was able to find the water to drink. The water continued to flow from where she had dug with her hands until it was producing over 32,000 gallons of water a day—as it still does. There have been over 5,000 cures recorded but less than 100 of them have been declared miraculous by the Church. Most of these have taken place during the blessing with the Blessed Sacrament.

Today we celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. We may not have the opportunity to travel to Lourdes and join in the processions, but we can know always that we have a Mother to help us and lead us to her Son, Jesus. And so we pray to her:

Grant us, O merciful God, protection in our weakness,
that we, who keep the Memorial of the Immaculate Mother of God,
may, with the help of her intercession,
rise up from our iniquities.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
One God, for ever and ever
Amen.

(Collect Prayer from the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes)

Saint Valentine's Day February 14, 2021

Everyone has heard about Saint Valentine. He's the patron saint of lovers, and on his day people send anonymous cards or presents to the one they love. But who was Saint Valentine?

Well, there was a priest named Valentine who lived in Rome in the third century. He was put in prison because he helped some Christians who were going to be executed by a cruel emperor named Claudius. While Valentine was in prison, he healed the chief warder's daughter, who was blind, and the warder and all his family became Christians.

When Emperor Claudius heard this, he said that Valentine should be executed. And so, on February 14 in the year 269, Valentine was clubbed to death. Then his head was chopped off, just to make sure he was dead.

In the same year, another man named Valentine, who was the bishop of Terni (about sixty miles from Rome), was also put to death by Emperor Claudius for being a Christian.

Neither saint seems to have anything to do with young lovers. So where do the traditions come from? Some say it is because on this day of the year (in the northern hemisphere) birds pair up and start mating.

Others say the day is special for lovers because at that time of year there had been a pagan Roman festival named Lupercalia, when young men took part in a kind of lottery to find a partner. But Lupercalia has nothing to do with either Saint Valentine.

Ash Wednesday February 17, 2021

Ash Wednesday is one of the most popular and important holy days in the liturgical calendar. Ash Wednesday opens Lent, a season of fasting and prayer. Ash Wednesday takes place 46 days before Easter Sunday, and is chiefly observed by Catholics, although many other Christians observe it too. The ashes we receive on our forehead in the shape of a cross serve as an outward sign of our sinfulness and need for penance. The ashes also symbolize our mortality, a reminder that one day we will die and our bodies will return to dust.

The tradition of receiving ashes has its origins in the Old Testament, where sinners performed acts of public penance. It was Pope Urban II who in the 11th century recommended that all Catholics take part in the practice of receiving ashes on Ash Wednesday. In the 12th century it became customary that the ashes used on Ash Wednesday were made by burning the previous year's palm branches.

Ash Wednesday is also a day of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. According to Church law, Catholics older than the age of 14 are supposed to abstain from meat. In addition, those between the ages of 18 and 59, not including pregnant or nursing mothers, should eat only one full meal. Smaller amounts of food—not as much as a full meal—may be eaten in the morning and either at lunchtime or dinner, depending on when you eat your full meal.

Saints Jacinta and Francisco Marto February 20, 2021

Saints Jacinta and Francisco Marto's Story

Between May 13 and October 13, 1917, three Portuguese shepherd children from Aljustrel, received apparitions of Our Lady at Cova da Iria, near Fátima, a city 110 miles north of Lisbon. At that time, Europe was involved in an extremely bloody war. Portugal itself was in political turmoil, having overthrown its monarchy in 1910; the government disbanded religious organizations soon after.

At the first appearance, Mary asked the children to return to that spot on the thirteenth of each month for the next six months. She also asked them to learn to read and write and to pray the rosary "to obtain peace for the world and the end of the war." They were to pray for sinners and for the conversion of Russia, which had recently overthrown Czar Nicholas II and was soon to fall under communism. Up to 90,000 people gathered for Mary's final apparition on October 13, 1917.

Less than two years later, Francisco died of influenza in his family home. He was buried in the parish cemetery and then re-buried in the Fátima basilica in 1952. Jacinta died of influenza in Lisbon in 1920, offering her suffering for the conversion of sinners, peace in the world, and the Holy Father. She was re-buried in the Fátima basilica in 1951. Their cousin Lúcia dos Santos, became a Carmelite nun and was still living when Jacinta and Francisco were beatified in 2000; she died five years later. Pope Francis canonized the younger children on his visit to Fátima to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the first apparition—May 13, 2017. The shrine of Our Lady of Fátima is visited by up to 20 million people a year.

1st Sunday of Lent Feb. 21, 2021

2nd Sunday of Lent Feb. 28, 2021

The season of Lent begins on Ash Wednesday. During Lent, we are asked to devote ourselves to seeking the Lord in prayer and reading Scripture, to service by giving alms, and to practice self-control through fasting. Many know of the tradition of abstaining from meat on Fridays during Lent, but we are also called to practice self-discipline and fast in other ways throughout the season. Contemplate the meaning and origins of the Lenten fasting tradition in this reflection. In addition, the giving of alms is one way to share God's gifts—not only through the distribution of money, but through the sharing of our time and talents. As St. John Chrysostom reminds us: "Not to enable the poor to share in our goods is to steal from them and deprive them of life. The goods we possess are not ours, but theirs." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2446)

In Lent, the baptized are called to renew their baptismal commitment as others prepare to be baptized through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, a period of learning and discernment for individuals who have declared their desire to become Catholics.

The key to fruitful observance of these practices is to recognize their link to baptismal renewal. We are called not just to abstain from sin during Lent, but to true conversion of our hearts and minds as followers of Christ. We recall those waters in which we were baptized into Christ's death, died to sin and evil, and began new life in Christ.

The Chair of Saint Peter, The Apostle February 22, 2021

February 22. Every cathedral has a "cathedra," a bishop's chair that is used only by the bishop when he presides in the cathedral. It's a symbol of his authority as chief teacher and liturgist of the diocese. So, today we celebrate the authority of the chief bishop, Saint Peter and his successors, the Popes.

Walking With God During Difficult Times

Living through historic times brings out the best and the worst in humanity; many of us have already seen this during this first, and hopefully last, year of the COVID-19 pandemic. The changes we have had to face, react, and adapt to have been considerable; the experience of helplessness and separation, which this health crisis has caused, something new for most of us. And yet, we have to live in and through the situation and its effects on all of us.

So where do we go in these circumstances? How do we find where God is in all of this?

Walking with God During Difficult Times is a retreat that may help considerably in this journey, as it draws parallels between the hurt and separation many of us have felt recently, and that which was experienced by those who came before us in sacred scripture. In listening and feeling, we can reflect on where God is calling us during this process, that far from being abandoned, He is with us on the journey if only we can notice His presence.

Dear Retreatant,

We are OPEN!! Things are definitely different here at Mater Dolorosa Retreat Center but we have something for everyone!

Since the Pandemic forced us to cancel many retreats in 2020 we are inviting you to consider these options. If you have already joined us, Thank you!

- 1: We have an online retreat that will be made available until the end of the year. The cost is $125.00. This is a pre-recorded series of conferences with the title "Walking with God During Difficult times". You can access it on a laptop or phone. This is NOT a Zoom.
- 2: We are offering an in house Hybrid retreat. You will come here like usual, however, the conferences will be pre recorded and you will be able to listen to them in your private room at the retreat Center. We will not meet in large groups. The retreat begins on Friday and ends on Sunday (like usual). The suggested donation is still $250.00. You will eat out doors (weather permitting). We will have Eucharist all three days. Everyone must wear a mask and maintain social distancing.

Join us online or in person!! Register now!
